The Q'eros are lineage carriers of the Sun, known as High Inkan Priests from the Peruvian Andes. Living near 18,000 ft. in elevation, they have "come down from the mountains" to deliver their transmissions during the time of Great Change.

Shamanic tribal textiles, mesa cloths, crystals, pre-Inkan carvings, and other medicine tools will be available at all events.

All proceeds directly benefit the Q'eros Nation & sustainable projects in education and organic permaculture.
